THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY February 6th, to THURSDAY February 13th, 1755.

The SPEECH of His Excellency JOHN REYNOLDS, Eſq; Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of GEORGIA, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame; delivered to the General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province, on the 7th Day of January, 1755.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the Aſſembly,

I CONGRATULATE you, upon the Regard His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſhew this Province, in fixing here a regular Form of Government, immediately under His Royal Authority: The great Advantages of which are too obvious to require Mention. And, as His Majeſty has done Me the Honour to appoint me your Governor, I take this firſt Opportunity to aſſure you, that it ſhall be my Study, during the Courſe of my Adminiſtration, to promote the Proſperity of the Colony; that you and your Poſterity may reap the Benefit that will attend its flouriſhing State: The only Advantage I propoſe to myſelf, is, my Share of the Honour that will ariſe from the Succeſs of our mutual Endeavours in this Undertaking; I expect therefore, that you will all, chearfully and loyally, contribute your Aſſiſtance to this laudable End; and as the moſt effectual Means to attain it are, Unanimity, Method, and cloſe Application, let me recommend it to you; and adviſe, that the more weighty and important Affairs of the Colony be taken into your immediate Conſideration, at your firſt Meeting. I think it proper for the public Service, that you firſt of all frame ſome Provincial Laws, for the well regulating the Militia, for making Public Roads, and eſtabliſhing a Proviſion for defraying the Expence of holding two Courts of Oyer and Terminer, which his Majeſty has directed to be held on the ſecond Tueſday in December, and the ſecond Tueſday in June: And I likewiſe recommend to your Conſideration, the making a Proviſion for the ordinary Contingencies of Government, as far as the Circumſtances of the People will conveniently admit of the ſame.

Gentlemen, As you are called together for no other Purpoſe, but to conſult about the beſt Methods of promoting your own Welfare, I doubt not but you'll take Care, to ſuffer nothing to diſunite you, or draw off your Attention from the public Good. I, on my Part, ſhall be ready to concur with you in every Thing that can be conducive to your true and laſting Intereſt.

To His Excellency JOHN REYNOLDS, Eſq; Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of GEORGIA.

The humble ADDRESS of His Majeſty's Council, met in General Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of this Province, met in General Aſſembly, beg Leave to return Your Excellency our hearty Thanks for your Speech delivered to us.

We are very ſenſible, of the great and obvious Advantage that will neceſſarily reſult from the Regard His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſhew this Province, in fixing here a regular Form of Government, immediately under His Royal Authority: And from Your Excellency's general Character, and the Knowledge, that from our nearer Approach to Your Excellency's Perſon, we have of your Abilities and Inclinations, we are well aſſured, that it will be Your Excellency's Study, during the Courſe of your Adminiſtration, to promote the Proſperity of this Colony, that we and our Poſterity may reap the Benefit that will attend its flouriſhing State; and that the only Advantage Your Excellency propoſes to yourſelf, is, your Share of the Honour that will ariſe from the Succeſs of our mutual Endeavours in this Undertaking.

We are determin'd to contribute our Aſſiſtance to this laudable End; and as we are convinced, that the moſt effectual Means to attain it are, Unanimity, Method, and cloſe Application, we ſhall take into immediate Conſideration, at our firſt Meeting, the more weighty and important Affairs of this Colony, and afterwards Things of leſſer Moment.

We will very chearfully co-operate in framing thoſe Provincial Laws that Your Excellency has been pleaſed to recommend; and being perfectly ſatisfied that we are call'd together for no other Purpoſe, but to conſult about the beſt Methods of promoting our own Welfare, we ſhall take Care to ſuffer nothing to diſunite us, or draw off our Attention from the Public Good, and we make no doubt, but Your Excellency will be ready to concur with us, in every Thing that can be conducive to our true and laſting Intereſt.

By Order of the Houſe,
Jan. 9, 1755. PATRICK GRAHAM.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

I GIVE you Thanks for your Addreſs, and aſſure you, that my beſt Endeavours ſhall never be wanting, to recommend me to the Continuance of your good Opinion.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Repreſentatives of GEORGIA, met in General Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives for the Province of Georgia, in Aſſembly met, beg Leave to return Your Excellency our ſincere and hearty Thanks for your affectionate Speech.

We have a moſt grateful Senſe, of the tender Regard His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſhew to this Province, under the benign Influence of His Royal Authority; and doubt not, but we ſhall reap the ſame Advantages from it, and enjoy the ſame Privileges under it, as the other His Majeſty's Provinces in America do.

We beg Leaue to offer His Majeſty, our moſt dutiful Acknowledgements for this Inſtance of His paternal Care, and alſo for the wiſe Choice He has been pleaſed to make of Your Excellency, whom we have great Reaſon to believe, poſſeſs'd of every Qualification, neceſſary towards diſcharging your Duty to your Royal Maſter, and making the People over whom you preſide, happy.

We thank you, Sir, in particular for the kind Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give us, of your hearty Inclination to promote the Good of the Colony, and to join with us in every Thing we propoſe for that End. We on our Parts, aſſure Your Excellency, that it ſhall be our conſtant Aim and Study, to propoſe nothing but what we judge conſiſtent with the Honour and Dignity of our Sovereign, and the Good of our Conſtituents, being well convinced, that the true Intereſt of His Majeſty, and His loyal Subjects, are ſo cloſely connected, that whatever tends to promote the Honour of the One, is likewiſe for the Advantage of the Other; having all of us this in View, we doubt not but we ſhall be unanimous in all our Proceedings; and we ſhall in the firſt Place, take under our Conſideration ſuch Affairs as ſhall appear to be of the greateſt Importance, and that require our immediate Attention.

We will likewiſe conſider of Methods for raiſing of Money, towards defraying the contingent Expences of Government, but our preſent Situation and Circumſtances, are ſuch, that we ſhall be able to contribute very little to that Purpoſe; but we hope, from what we have already experienced of His Majeſty's Royal Favour, that he will be pleaſed to grant us ſuch Aſſiſtances as will make good our Deficiencies, and at the ſame Time aſſure You Excellency, that our Inclination ſhall not be wanting, as far as our Ability will permit.

We hope that the whole Tenor of our Actions, will tend to convince Your Excellency, that we have nothing more at Heart, than to conſult the Honour and Dignity of our moſt gracious Sovereign, and truly to promote the Intereſt of this Colony, in the doing of which, we flatter ourſelves, we ſhall in ſome Meaſure, leſſen to you the Weight of Government, and procure you the laſting Satiſfaction, of having contributed ſo largely towards rendering us a flouriſhing People, which we believe to be your ſincereſt Wiſh.

By Order of the Houſe,
Jan. 9, 1755. DAVID DOUGLASS, Spea.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

IT gives me great Satiſfaction to find you ſo truly ſenſible of His Majeſty's paternal Care of this Colony. I am obliged to you for the kind Marks of your Eſteem in this Addreſs, and for the Aſſurances you give me of proceeding in the Public Buſineſs with Unanimity. I ſhall be glad of every Opportunity of convincing you of the Sincerity of my good Wiſhes for your Proſperity, and I promiſe myſelf, from your Application, that they will be crowned with Succeſs.

To his Excellency ARTHUR DOBBS, Eſq; Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's Province of NORTH-CAROLINA.

The Humble ADDRESS of the COUNCIL.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE, his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the members of his majeſty's council for this province, with pleaſure, embrace this, the firſt opportunity of our meeting together, of congratulating your excellency on your ſafe arrival in this province; and we beg leave to aſſure you, we have a lively ſenſe of his majeſty's paternal care and tenderneſs, in intruſting the government to a gentleman, whoſe benevolent character and experience in public affairs, gives us the moſt ſanguine hopes, that under his prudent adminiſtration, an end may be put to all the diviſions under which this province has already too long groaned; and that peace and happineſs may ſucceed to rancour and party.

We are next to return your excellency our hearty thanks for your ſpeech, and to expreſs the great ſatiſfaction it gives us, to obſerve, you have pointed at thoſe things only, which may conduce to the happineſs, ſafety, and peace of this government: We ſhall, therefore, in duty to his majeſty, and our country, readily concur with the other houſe, in paſſing ſuch laws as may be moſt effectual for the encouragement of pious and learned clergymen, to inſtruct the inhabitants in true religion and virtue; for the more eaſy collecting his majeſty's quit-rents, that he may be enabled to diſcharge the great arrears due to the officers of this government; for the ſupporting the credit of our paper currency, and fixing a permanent fund of credit, that our character, in foreign parts, may be eſtabliſhed; for the extending our trade into the continent, and laying our Indian traders under proper regulations; for the granting ſuch a further aid to the colony of Virginia, as a country already exhauſted, (by a conſiderable ſum before given for that purpoſe,) can poſſibly ſpare.

We ſhall alſo agree with the other houſe, in providing a ſufficient fund to erect public buildings, at ſuch place as the ſeat of government may be fixed at; and for the other purpoſes your excellency mentions.

We look upon it as our duty, to return his majeſty our ſincere thanks, for having removed the bone of contention that occaſioned our late diviſions; and nothing can give us a more ſenſible pleaſure, than the proſpect we have of a coalition under your excellency's adminiſtration; and that, inſtead of hard and injurious terms, all parties may be ſo united, that as they are under one government, ſo they may all join for the general good, by the enforcing the many good laws already made, and for the future, heartily joining, in making ſuch others, as the neceſſities of the government may require: And as appointing a committee for a new reviſal, will be the only means whereby the deficiences of the laws (already made,) can be found, we ſhall chearfully concur, in appointing ſuch perſons as may be moſt capable for that purpoſe.

It is with the greateſt ſatisfaction, that we obſerve your excellency's inclinations to promote true religion and virtue, the wealth, peace, and happineſs of this province, as well as the increaſe and improvement of its trade; and your wiſe reſolution, for eſtabliſhing a union of affections in the people of this government, by giving of encouragement or countenance to theſe only, who will concur in ſo good a purpoſe: As for our parts, as we are unanimous in our ſentiments, unbiaſſed by the prejudices of parties, and having no other view, nor any thing more at heart, than the welfare of the province; we ſhall uſe our utmoſt endeavours, by a ſteady conduct, to reconcile the affections of the people to one another; and by that means, render your excellency's adminiſtration proſperous and eaſy.

We think it an indiſpenſible obligation on us, to return his majeſty our ſincere and gratefulleſt thanks, for having been graciouſly pleaſed to ſend over to this province, a thouſand ſtand of arms; and we flatter ourſelves, that through your excellency's interceſſion, we may obtain an independant company, with artillery, and proper ſtores for our fort, to defend us againſt the inſults of our enemies.

The humble ADDRESS of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the members of the general aſſembly of North-Carolina, beg leave to congratulate your excellency on your ſafe arrival in your government, and return you our hearty thanks for your ſpeech, at the opening of this ſeſſion.

The temporal good, as well as the eternal felicity of mankind, ſo eſſentially depends on the knowledge and practice of true religion; and the encouragement of a pious and learned clergy, is ſo evidently neceſſary, that we ſhall readily give all the aſſiſtance in our power, to accompliſh what your excellency has ſo juſtly recommended on that head.

The numberleſs advantages, and invaluable priviledges, which all his majeſty's ſubjects enjoy, under his wiſe and beneficent adminiſtration, are ſuch, as will, on every occaſion, ſtimulate our endeavours to a faithful diſcharge of our duty to the beſt of kings: The large arrear of quit-rent due to the crown, and to the earl Granville, deſerve great attention; and we ſhall paſs a bill for the moſt ſpeedy and eaſy manner of collecting the ſame, that the poor and indigent ſtate of the province will admit.

We ſhall chearfully give our aſſiſtance, in ſupplying any defects in the laws, which relate to the courts of juſtice; in the proper regulation of which, the planting, as well as trading intereſt, is greatly concerned.

We ſhall fully conſider the plan mentioned in your excellency's ſpeech, for making a paper currency, whenever you ſhall pleaſe to lay the ſame before us.

The apparent neceſſity, both in a political and moral light, of keeping a good correſpondence with the Indians, in amity with us, will engage us to take ſuch meaſures, as will ſecure their trade, and confirm their friendſhip.

The unjuſtifiable encroachments of the French, on his majeſty's territories in the colony of Viriginia, and their unwarrantable hoſtilities, ſo pathetically mentioned by your excellency, deſerve the juſt reſentment of every Britiſh ſubject; and will excite us to raiſe ſuch ſupplies, as the circumſtances of our conſtituents will admit of, to enable your excellency to protect our frontier, and aſſiſt the other governments, in repelling a treacherous and inſatiable enemy.

We ſhall endavour to obliterate the remembrance of our former conteſts, and the ill conſequences which have attended them; being deſirous, in all our conſultations, to proceed with unanimity and public ſpirit, in every meaſure that may be for his majeſty's ſervice, and the general good of the province; which are ſo intimately connected, that whatever advances the one, contributes to the eothr.

We perceive the neceſſity of reviſing the laws, and ſhall prepare a bill for that purpoſe; and your excellency may be aſſured, that we ſhall give due attention to every thing that you have recommended.

We eſteem it a ſingular mark of his majeſty's favour, his appointing a gentleman of your excellency's known abilities and character, to preſide over us; and we ſhall, with the greateſt alacrity, concur with the members of his majeſty's council, in every thing that may tend to make your adminiſtration eaſy and happy.

LONDON, October 29.

IT is now again reported that ſome commoners of large eſtates, are ſoon to be created peers.

On the firſt of this month the grand dutcheſs of Ruſſia, was brought to bed of a ſon, to the great joy of the empreſs and the whole court, being regarded as an event of the utmoſt importance to the Ruſſian empire. The young prince was baptiſed the ſame day by the name of Paul, and according to letters from Peterſburgh of the 3d, he and the princeſs his mother, were as well as could be wiſhed.

Nov. 7. Some letters from Dublin ſay, that orders have been received for draughting 325 men out of five regiments of foot on that eſtabliſhment, being 65 out of each regiment, who are immediately to join the two regiments ordered to embark for Virginia.

'Tis ſtrongly reported that the right hon. the earl of Holderneſſe will be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland, the earl of Granville ſecretary of ſtate, the duke of Dorſet preſident of the council, the right hon. Henry Fox chancellor of the exchequer, and the right hon. Henry Legge ſecretary at war.

Nov. 9. Sir Peter Halket arrived at Dublin on thurſday ſe'nnight.

The ſame day twelve carriages with cheſts containing 600 arms, were ſent from the caſtle of Dublin, to Kinſale, for the uſe of the draughts who are to embark from thence for America.

Nov. 14. According to letters from Spain, it was on advice, that certain European manufactures, were much wanted in the Spaniſh Weſt Indies, that his Catholic majeſty granted a licence for ſending out four regiſter ſhips to Vera Cruz, Carthagena, and the South Sea.

Laſt night there was a grand meeting at the cockpit Whitehall, on affairs of importance.

The lords of the admiralty have ordered the Vanguard, the Culloden, and Captain, three ſeventy-gun ſhips to be forthwith victualled and mann'd up to their full complement. They are intended for channel ſervice. And it is ſaid, that ſeveral more men of war will be ſpeedily put into commiſſion.

Nov. 16. Yeſterday the right hon. the houſe of peers waited on his majeſty at St. James's, with their addreſs of thanks for his moſt gracious ſpeech from the throne.

They write from Chatham, that his majeſty's ſhip Lichfield, a fine fourth rate, is ordered to be fitted out for ſea ſervice with the utmoſt expedition.

We hear that it is intended the forces going to Virginia ſhall remain there three years, in order to put thoſe parts into a laſting poſture of defence, and the better to inſtruct the inhabitants and their allies in military diſcipline.

A learned Spaniard has acquainted the world in ſome letters lately publiſhed, that the adder or ſerpent ſtone, which is found to be a cure for the bite of any venemous reptile, is nothing but a piece of burnt hartſhorn. This diſcovery was communicated by a Chineſe to a Franciſcan monk. As to the form of the pretended ſtone, it is ſufficient that it be of the circumference of a half-penny, three times as thick in the middle as at the extremities, and diminiſhing gradually like a lens. The manner of uſing it in Spain is this: They prick the part that was bit with a needle till the blood comes; then, applying the ſtone, they leave it till it drops off of itſelf; which it never will do till all the venom be extracted; and this requires ſometimes two days, and at other times a fortnight or more. When it will not ſtick, it is a ſign there is no venom left.

Some letters from Naples adviſe, that Sir Charles Gray, the Britiſh miniſter at that court, has concluded a treaty with the miniſters of his Sicilian majeſty; the circumſtances whereof we may expect in a little time.

This day the hon. houſe of commons waited on his majeſty with an addreſs of thanks for his moſt gracious ſpeech.

CHARLES-TOWN, Febr. 13.

On Wedneſday and Thurſday the 5th and 6th Inſtant, two exceſſive hard Gales of Wind were felt here, which blew off ſeveral Veſſels that appeared in Sight the firſt of thoſe Days, and the two only Pilot-Boats that were then out, Mr. Thomas Tucker's and Mr. Buckle's: Mr. Tucker's Boat got in on Sunday, after having lain ſeveral Hours on her Beam Ends and loſt her Canow, Anchor and Foreſail; but Mr. Buckle's we hear got aſhore on the Racoon-Keys, following a Coaſter that went in there, whence ſhe may however be got off. The Prince of Wales, Capt. Curling, rode both Gales out off the Bar, and got in the 7th; a Snow from London, on board which Mr. Buckle put one of his Boys, has not ſince appeared; the Snow Planter, Capt. Wheeler, on board which he afterwards went himſelf, got in on the 9th: But two Sloops and a Ship that were ſeen the ſame Days, have not come in Sight ſince.—— Mr. Tucker ſpoke with one of the Sloops, which was the Port Royal, Capt. Livingſton, bound from New-York for Port-Royal, all well on board.

On Sunday arrived from Briſtol (whither he went for the Recovery of his Health) the Rev. Mr. Andrews, Aſſiſtant to the Rector of this Pariſh.

Laſt Friday Evening the General Aſſembly of this Province adjourned to Monday the 24th Inſtant.

Laſt Tueſday Morning the Jamaica Man of War, commanded by Capt. Hood, returning from Georgia, was, by the Careleſsneſs of a Negro Pilot (Jerry) run aſhore on No Man's-Land Breaker near our Bar; but Mr. Tucker going on board preſently after ſhe went aſhore, the Weather proving calm, and her Guns and Proviſions being taken out, ſhe was got off again at Night, without receiving any conſiderable Damage.

THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY February 13th, to THURSDAY February 20th, 1755.

The humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, preſented to His Majeſty on Friday the Fifteenth Day of November, 1754.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return Your Majeſty our humble Thanks for Your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne. We are truly ſenſible of Your Majeſty's wiſe and public-ſpirited Views to ſtrengthen the Foundations, and ſecure the Duration of the General Peace, in which every Part of Europe is ſo nearly intereſted. And nothing can excite our warmeſt Gratitude more than that Concern, which You are pleaſed to expreſs, that the Advantages of this Peace may be rendered laſting to Your People, by promoting their Commerce, and protecting thoſe Poſſeſſions which are ſo eſſential to it; and are an Object of the Public Care, never to be departed from by this Country.

The friendly Aſſurances, which Your Majeſty has lately received from the King of Spain, give us great Satisfaction; as we promiſe ourſelves, that they will be followed with very ſalutary Effects, for advancing the important Ends already mentioned, in which both Nations will find a reciprocal Benefit.

Your Majeſty's Goodneſs to Your People, in conſenting to apply the Forfeited Eſtates in the Highlands to thoſe Public Uſes, to which they ſtand appropriated by the laſt Parliament, will always be thankfully remembered by us. We ſhall, with the greateſt Readineſs, concur in any Proviſions, that may render that Meaſure as perfect and uſeful as poſſible for improving that Part of the United Kingdom, and [illegible]

The enforcing the due Courſe and Execution of the Laws, and ſecuring the Authority of Your Majeſty's Government there, of which thoſe Laws have always been the Rule, are one and the ſame Object, which will not fail to meet with our conſtant Attention.

Permit us, Sir, to take this Opportunity to renew the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our inviolable Fidelity and Affection to Your Sacred Perſon, and Government. In this, our Duty and our Intereſt unite, and are inſeparable. Our Reſolution is fixed and unalterable, to ſtrengthen your Majeſty's Hands, for preſerving the Peace; ſupporting the Honour of Your Crown; and maintaining the Rights and Poſſeſſions of Your Kingdoms, againſt any Encroachments. The Maxim, graciouſly laid down by Your Majeſty, that a mutual Confidence between You and Your Parliament is the ſureſt Pledge of the Happineſs, both of King and People, is highly worthy a Britiſh Monarch; and it ſhall be our zealous Endeavour, to demonſtrate to the World the Stability of that Confidence; and, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, to tranſmit to our Poſterity the Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's Reign, in the Perpetuity of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in Your Royal Houſe.

His Majeſty's moſt Gracious ANSWER.

My Lords,

I Return you My hearty Thanks for this very dutiful and affectionate Addreſs. [illegible] you expreſs for My Perſon and [illegible] for maintaining the Rights and [illegible] Crown, cannot fail to have [illegible] both at Home and Abroad. [illegible] which you repoſe in Me, ſhall always [illegible] of for the true Intereſt of My People.

The humble Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons, to [illegible]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

W[illegible] Your [illegible]

return Your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks, for Your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne; and to aſſure Your Majeſty, that Your faithful Commons will gladly embrace every Opportunity of teſtifying their inviolable Attachment, and Duty to Your Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

It gives us the greateſt Satisfaction, to find, that the wiſe Meaſures, Your Majeſty has purſued, for ſtrengthening and ſecuring the General Peace, have been attended with ſo explicit a Declaration, on the Part of the King of Spain, of his Reſolution to cultivate Friendſhip and Confidence with Your Majeſty.

We acknowledge, with the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude, Your Majeſty's conſtant and uniform Endeavours for the Preſervation of the Public Tranquility, at the ſame Time, that Your Majeſty has not ſuffered Your Attention to be diverted from the neceſſary Conſideration of Self-defence; and we aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will ſupport Your Majeſty, and chearfully grant ſuch Supplies as may give Weight and Efficacy to Your Majeſty's Meaſures, for the Preſervation of the General Peace, and enable Your Majeſty to vindicate Your juſt Rights and Poſſeſſions from all Encroachments.

We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall be wanting, on our Parts, to complete, and render effectual, to the common Benefit of the United Kingdom, that ſalutary Plan, formed by the laſt Parliament, for appropriating the forfeited Eſtates in the Highlands to the Uſes of the Public; and we aſſure Your Majeſty, that the gradual Reduction of the National Debt, and the Improvement of Trade and Commerce, ſo eſſential to the Strength and Power of this Kingdom, ſhall be the Objects of our ſerious and conſtant Attention.

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated November [illegible]

AT length what has been for ſome time paſt foretold is come to paſs, and the queen dowager of Spain is acting the grand part for which ſhe appears to have been deſigned. The empreſs of Ruſſia, and the empreſs queen of Hungary, do not act a leſs remarkable part upon the great theatre of the world: But this dowager queen is the moſt indefatigable in her endeavours to put in execution her political projects, which tend to bring yet another crown into her houſe, and, if ſhe lives, perhaps, to re-unite the crown of Spain and Portugal. It is ſaid by thoſe people who have intereſt in ſaying ſo, that this will never happen, ([illegible]): Don Lewis's reſignation of the cardinal's hat is the firſt ſtep towards effecting ſuch a deſign; his marriage with the heireſs of Portugal will, according to all probability, be the ſecond. What events may not this produce? What a theatre does it open for this politic queen to act upon! She has in a great meaſure the means of accompliſhing what ſhe aims at, if the miniſtry of France and Auſtria do not traverſe her views; ſhe being miſtreſs of a large part of Italy, and of all Spain. All the politicians in Europe [illegible] their attention [illegible] deſigns of the Queen in favour of her [illegible] Infant Don Lewis, who ſeems deſtined to make an extraordinary figure in the World, eſpecially if he marries a Princeſs of Portugal, and that the Queen of Spain continues to [illegible] for the misfortune of Europe, [illegible] lihood ſhe ſhould [illegible] [illegible] of theſe kingdoms are now in ſo [illegible] a ſituation.

LONDON.

It is very much doubted whether the City of Venice will remain quiet: Moſt people think the affair will not yet end; but if the parliament be put at their liberty, they, it is thought, will [illegible] the [illegible].

Nov. 5. Private letters from Moſcow, inform us, that the affairs of the empire are conducted with a ſtrict regard to the public welfare: That her imperial majeſty is every day more attentive to the noble deſigns of her great father, and her chief ambition, is to render her reign happy, by promoting the happineſs of her people: That the revenues of the empire are augmented, within theſe ſeven years, half of what they were before, and that without any new burthen on the ſubject: And that Ruſſia is at preſent in ſo flouriſhing a ſtate, that the number of people, out of which her recruits of ſoldiers are raiſed, is increaſed within theſe twenty years one third.

This morning a conſiderable quantity of ordnance ſtores was ſhipped for the Straits.

Nov. 5. According to letters from Liſbon of good credit, the whole nation of Portugal cries out againſt the marriage of a princeſs of the houſe of Braganza, with the infant don Lewis, for fear leſt this alliance ſhould, in proceſs of time, bring Portugal under the Spaniſh yoke.

There is a report, that ſome late letters from France are full of ſtrong aſſurances that orders have been already diſpatched for the immediate ſuſpenſion of hoſtilities in America, and the return of the French troops to their former boundaries.

From Hanover, by this day's Holland mail, they write, That the troops of that electorate are to be new cloathed in the ſpring, and to hold themſelves in readineſs to be reviewed by the king, who is expected there about the middle of April.

London, Nov. 12. They write from Paris, that all converſation is engroſſed by the ſurpriſing ſecret found out by a Swiſs phyſician to preſerve life without either eating or drinking. When this was firſt rumour'd, moſt people thought it was a banter upon ſome particular phyſician, or the faculty in general; but [illegible] they have changed their note [illegible] they have [illegible] and [illegible] offering to make the experiment on any perſons they would pleaſe to appoint, and even upon himſelf. In conſequence of this offer [illegible] ſome ſoldiers were ſhut up with a guard over them for a fortnight, during which time they took no kind of ſuſtenance, except a doſe of powder of that phyſician's compoſition, diluted in wine, beer, or water, which was given them every evening and morning. On the 15th day they appeared to be in as good health and as ſtrong as the firſt day. The ſame experiment was afterwards made on the phyſician for fifteen days, and [illegible]. Notwithſtanding [illegible]

To be Sold, and entered upon the 20th of February, the plantation whereon I now live in St. John's pariſh, about 35 miles from Charles-Town, containing 675 acres, 200 of which is fine ſwamp, and 100 of it not yet clear'd, the whole good for rice, corn and indico: There is on the ſaid plantation, a very good dwelling houſe lately repaired, with a good kitchen, overſeer's houſe, barn and other neceſſary out houſes. The purchaſer may have 12 months credit, paying intereſt, and giving ſuch ſecurity as ſhall be approved of by Nathaniel Broughton.

Who has alſo part of a town lot to diſpoſe of.

TO BE SOLD at public vendue, on tueſday the 18th of February at the uſual place in Charles-Town, the following tracts of land, viz.

A tract of 100 acres on the Congree River, bounding ſouth-weſt on the ſaid river, ſouth eaſt on lands granted to doctor Daniel Gibſon, north partly on vacant land, and partly on land held by the heirs of Thomas Brown, having good buildings on it, and well known to be choice land for Indico.

As alſo a tract of 450 acres in Four hole Swamp, bounding north weſtward on lands of Francis Larguemar, north eaſt on lands partly laid out and partly vacant, extraordinary good for indico and rice, being the plantation whereon Mr. George [illegible], formerly kept ſtore.

As alſo a tract of 400 acres, bounding ſouth on [illegible], eaſt on lands of Elizabeth [illegible], and Gaſper [illegible], north on vacant land, and weſt on lands of Thomas Upton.

Likewiſe a tract of 200 acres, bounding weſt on Santee River, formerly granted to Nicholas Haynes, with ſeveral good buildings thereon, very well known to be good for indico, &c. The above tracts of land, belonging to the eſtate of Robert Still, deceaſed.

At the ſame time and place, alſo will be ſold a tract of about 60 acres, in St. Bartholomew's Pariſh Ponpon, bounding on lands of Thomas Boone Eſq; and Mrs. Jane Sanders, extraordinary good for indico or rice, belonging to Benjamin Heap.

And alſo one other tract of 500 acres, ſituate and lying in Colleton County, bounding weſtward on Combahee River, north weſt on Thomas's lands, and north eaſt on Henry Fenwick's, David Ferguſon, and Seabrook's lands and Chehaw Marſh, formerly granted to Thomas Ayres, and lately in the tenure of William Lancaſter, and now belonging to Joſhua Morgan.

The above lands ſeized on execution, by Charles Lowndes, Prov. Mar.

ON the 7th of July laſt, RAN AWAY from the ſubſcriber in Charles-Town, a very hairy, ſhort thick chubby negro fellow, nam'd March, between 30 and 40 years old, Angola born, formerly the property of Jonah Collins deceaſed, and lately belonging to John [illegible] of Orangeburg: He had on when he went away, a check ſhirt, large oznabrug breeches with ſtrings in the knees, an old hat cut in the form of a jockey cap, and an old homeſpun blue and white waiſtcoat; was lately bought at vendue; and it's imagined, that if he is not harbour'd in or about Charles-Town, he is gone towards Orangeburgh or Santee. Whoever takes him up in any part of the province above 10 miles from Charles-Town, ſhall have Twenty Pounds reward; and in the ſaid town or within 10 miles thereof, Ten Pounds: And if any perſon can, and will, give information, of his being harboured by any white perſon, ſuch perſon ſhall, on the conviction of ſuch harbourer, receive a ſum of One Hundred Pounds currency, from James Parſons.

BROUGHT to the WORK-HOUSE in Charles-Town.

Nov. 30, 1754. A ſhort thick new negro man, ſpeaks no Engliſh, mark'd about the breaſt and down his cheeks, and has on white negro cloth jacket and breeches: Taken up at Mr. John Cattell's ſavanna.

To be Sold at public Vendue, at the plantation of Mr. Edward Ferguſon at Ponpon, where Mr. James Chambers deceaſed lately lived, on thurſday the 27th inſtant, all the perſonal eſtate of the ſaid deceaſed, conſiſting of a fine parcel of ſlaves, houſhold goods, a fine ſtock of cattle, hogs and horſes, with ſundry plantation tools, &c. The conditions to be publiſhed at the ſale.

All perſons indebted to the ſaid eſtate, are deſired to diſcharge the ſame, and thoſe to whom it is indebted, to bring in their accompts properly atteſted by that day, to Henry Livingſton, Berſheba Chambers } Admrs.

This is to give Notice to all manner of perſons, that there is a ſtraggling vagabond perſon who goes about the town and country by the name of John Baptiſt, and alſo adds Quaſh to it; that he is a great impoſtor and deceiver; and that by his inſinuations and wheedlings, in calling himſelf my ſon, he hath got from my brother and myſelf above one hundred pounds ſterling, to pay his paſſage to Mr. Samuel Wragg (for he came in a ſervant), and to cloath him, and buy ſtuff to ſet him up in his trade, for he is a ſtay maker: Theſe are therefore to beg all gentlemen and others that know me, not to ſhew him any favours on my account, whatever you do on his own; for he is a mere impoſtor and deceiver, and I never from henceforth ſhall own any kindred to him while I am

Matthew Quaſh.

The Subſcriber is removed into the houſe lately occupied by Mr. Charles Lowndes, in King-ſtreet; where he continues to inſtruct youth in Reading, Writing (in all the different hands now practiced) Merchants Accompts, and Navigation; he will alſo undertake to teach about 6 young ladies, to draw and ſhade with the Indian ink pencil, which may not only ſerve as an amuſement to their genius, but in ſome reſpects become ſerviceable to them in needlework: And as he propoſes every day to ſend home their books and performances, the parents or relations will thereby have an opportunity (themſelves) to inſpect into the care and fidelity of the teacher, as alſo into what improvement their children may make under the tuition of

Their moſt obedient humble Servant,
JOHN THOMAS.
